

OUR BELIEFS

WHY WE GATHER

Sunday Worship Service is a multi-generational gathering of the larger church “family” focused on the holiness and trustworthiness of God. We use our gifts to glorify God and build each other up as we gather. This includes diverse music, Scripture, giving, fellowship, serving, teaching the Bible, prayer, and communion. It is a weekly time for people in all stages of their spiritual journeys to re-center on God. We expect the Father to show up, to hear Jesus speak, and to experience the work of the Holy Spirit. From this gathering we are sent out with power to bring the Kingdom into our respective spheres of influence over the next week. These gatherings compare to the temple gatherings of the early church. Small groups compare to the meetings in their homes. Acts 2:42-47

- Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00PM in the Hearth Room

ROYCE AND LIZ BAKER

CRU - Cincinnati and Northern KY

Launch spiritual movements by winning, building, and sending Christ-centered disciples who make disciples.

Prayer Requests:

- For our hearts toward the Lord - that we would have a continual, vibrant pursuit of the Lord individually, as husband and wife, and as a family.
- That we would lead our team with humility, commitment, and dependence on the Lord.
- That the students in our movement would have depth of relationship with the Lord, consistent times in the Word, empowering by the Spirit, engagement with the lost, and understanding of how they have been uniquely created to have a Kingdom impact.
- That we would see students put their faith in Jesus and the new believers would be discipled and raised up as Christ-centered believers.
